

Instructional Design Coaches

OUR ROLE

Forward Edge Instructional Design Coaches are passionate educators and technology enthusiasts who facilitate industry-best learning programs. They benefit schools at all levels - from classroom teachers to district-level administrators - by offering job-embedded instructional guidance, engaging professional development, and goal-oriented supports. Our coaches lean on their experience, friendly demeanor, and "people first" approach to enhance the great teaching and learning happening in your district!

OUR WHY

We strive to cultivate relationships and share our collective strengths, so that we help people grow and have a positive impact on those around them.

OUR GOALS

- Build Positive Relationships
- Improve Classroom Instruction
- Integrate Instructional Technology
- Streamline Community Engagement
- Transform School/District Culture

OUR STRENGTHS

Instructional
Coaching

Professional Development

District Goal
Alignment

Technology
Consultation

Data/Growth
Analysis

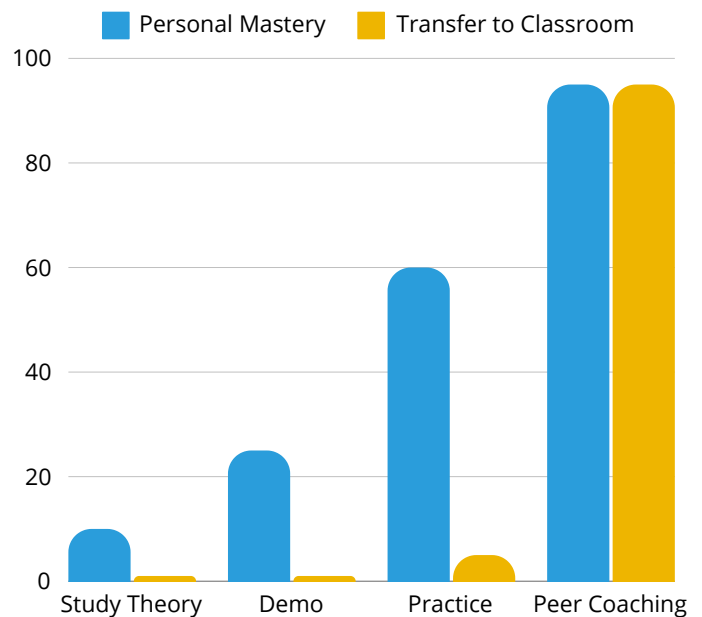

Best Practice
Research

Resource
Curation

The Impact of Coaching

Credit: Joyce and Showers (2002)

A Day in the Life of a Coach

WE PROVIDE VALUE

Forward Edge Instructional Design Coaches support everyone in the district to which they are assigned. In a typical day, you'll see our coaches:

Drive Instructional Coaching

- Offer real-time, in-person teaching support
- Facilitate one-on-one coaching cycles

Promote District Goal Alignment

- Connect school stakeholders together
- Meet with admin to advance district goals

Lead Professional Development

- Design/deliver sessions at in-service days
- Implement year-long learning programs

Spark Innovation District-Wide

- Research cutting-edge tools/strategies
- Model teaching and learning best practices

WE SUPPORT EVERYONE

From a principal: "Emily is always willing to help, and she is realistic about what our teachers can implement...I value her feedback in making technology decisions."

From a classroom teacher: "Annamarie is a valued member of our community...she's encouraged me to try new things for the betterment of my students' learning."

From a school counselor: "I work in the guidance office and Torie totally gets what I'm trying to do! She is a great addition -- always smiling and friendly!"

Build Relationships
Change Teaching Practice
District-Wide Culture Shift

WE SEE RESULTS

3x

Internal Department
Growth Since 2019

95%

Transfer to the Classroom

2400

Local Educators
Coached

10,000+

Students Impacted by Coaching Cycles Each Year